CUE THE MUSIC! FRONTIERS: THE LIVE EXPERIENCE BOARDS COMPOSER / MUSICIAN ROYD HASTON

Veteran Los Angeles-based musician ROYD HASTON has joined the FRONTIERS: THE LIVE EXPERIENCE mix as composer, musical director and sound engineer.

Royd's experience as a professional musician, composer and producer spans 30 years and an endless variety of projects.

His clients include major studios and top corporations and his work encompasses composing music for television, film, film trailers and advertising campaigns, as well as custom designing the soundscapes for a host of various projects.

“Translating a modern science-fiction television project to the live stage is a difficult and daunting task...one that has never been tried like this before,” said FRONTIERS writer and creator GEOFFREY ASHLEY. “The music and sound design Royd has composed for this show create an amazing aural universe that will bring the audience seamlessly into the FRONTIERS world. So much so, they will never even miss the whiz-bang visual effects they’re not seeing!”
